Buzz and the Blues Band

Robert "Buzz" Oxford is a truly exceptional performer!
He grabs the audience's attention, and then never lets them go. He has been hailed as THE blues voice of Australia. They call him the elder statesman of the blues because he has been performing now for over 50 years and his show is still as energetic and exciting as it ever was.

“ And so it is: the beginning of the end of his old life, and the beginning of his emergence into a new one. 12&12 Step Two, p.26 ”

Be prepared for the very best! His solo act has received rave reviews. He made a solo album in an effort to help people 'Open Up!' He himself had problems showing his emotions for years. This album has received more fan mail than any other project he has ever handled. Robert "Buzz" Oxford can whip the audience up with his dynamic band or he can have you reaching for the tissues with his soulful and prolific song writing. Either way he is a performer not to be missed.

He doesn't just play for his audience ... he connects with them!
